Bernward,

Ok to your responses.

My email today on velocity responds to your email last night, so please read it and get back to me with confirmation.

Also I have included the new acronym list in the RTC outline,

I modified (you will see in your version) the table to t2-3 to include a column "Response Number" so that will need to make it into the final RTC.

Also, I am updating the RTC so we have a final review before sending it to you..

So please confirm that there have NOT been changes to Section 2.2 and 2.3 of the RTC outline since the earlier RTc document... and the one that you have that is dated 102616.

?? thanks
